Open Letter

(Advertisement)

The following open letter from Ex Gov. Augustus E. Willson, Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, long term, is hereby published by request and at the expense of County Judge G. M. Ballard, who most respectfully but earnestly asks his friends throughout the county to come to the polls upon to-morrow and help to nominate the Ex Governor.

Louisville, Ky., July 27, 1914.
My Dear Sir: The primary election will be held in Kentucky next Saturday August 1st. In every precinct the polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 4 p. m., to record the choice of those who wish to vote for candidates for party nominations for United States Senator, and the nominees thus selected will be voted for in the election next November.

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator for the full term, to succeed William O. Bradley. I ask and shall deeply appreciate, your support.

I am a Republican. I have fought the battles of the party for more than a generation. I am for the principles that brought it into being and kept it in control of the nation for more than forty years. I am for those principles as applied to the problems of today. I am for the revival of American industries now languishing under Democratic rule. I am for the employment of the armies of American workmen now in idleness because of Democratic legislation and politics. I am for Republican prosperity and against Democratic hard times. I am for a strong foreign policy, such as obtains under Republican control, and opposed to the weak, "watchful waiting," "mushy amiability" policy of the present national Democratic administration, which has made our government the jest of the world. I am against the infamous treaty proposed by the present administration, solely for the purpose of placing a stain on the good name of our government under the administration of Theodore Roosevelt, pleads guilty to robbery of Columbia, confesses a fine of $25,000,000, and offers an abject apology for having done that which reason and honor required as to do.

I stand upon my record as a candidate. In 1907, as the Republican nominee for Governor, I carried the State by more than 18,000 votes, and the city of Louisville by 9,000. In that year I went direct to the people and from the stump waged an aggressive campaign. The political conditions in Kentucky to day are much the same as those of 1907. What I did in 1907 I can again do in 1914.

I stand upon my record as Governor. I was for law and order. I made a just settlement of the Taylor, Fowers, Finley, Howard parson cases, and forever removed from our people a cause of strife and bitterness. I was for economy. By vetoing and fighting the reckless appropriations made or proposed by Democratic legislatures, I saved the taxpayers of Kentucky millions of dollars. Compare my administration with the Democratic administration which succeeded it, and then determine whether or not I am worthy of your support.

Because I loved the party more than I loved any man, I refused to take sides in the factional fight which divided and defeated the party in 1912. I have been able to retain the good will of both the Republicans and Progressives, and I believe that my nomination will reunite the party in Kentucky. I have been assured by Progressives in every section of the state that they will support me. The Republican party is coming back into power. There isn't any doubt about it. Let's get together and hasten it.

Some have said that it would be difficult for me to win in the primary because the "machine" is against me. What say the people as to this? What say you? Have you been consulted by any of the "bosses" who met in midnight conferences in the Sellbach Hotel in Louisville and then announced that "it is all fixed," that "there is no chance for Willson," and that "he must not run." This is a primary election, not a convention; and the people, and not the "bosses" and subsidized newspapers, will control. I make my appeal direct to the people, and I know they will sustain me. The Democratic press is opposed to my candidacy, for they know what happened in 1907, when I was your nominee, and they are anxious to prevent my nomination now.

I am going to win this nomination and I want you to help me win it. I hope that you will go to the polls next Saturday and vote for me, and that you will have your friends and neighbors do likewise. With gratitude for anything you may do in my behalf, I beg to remain, Sincerely yours,

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 28th JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

On the first Saturday in August of this year a general Primary Election will be held in every County in this District, as well as throughout the whole State; and in which Primary Election all parties will nominate candidates of their respective parties to be voted for at the following November Election. This will be the most important Primary Election held in this State since the new primary law was enacted. Candidates will be nominated in said Primary Election for the high offices of United States Senator, Judge of the Court of Appeals and Member of Congress from this District.

It is highly important that this, as well as all other elections, should be free from the corrupting influences of money and from Bribery of every sort and I, therefore, call upon the members of all parties of this District to see to it that the coming Primary is conducted along proper lines and in strict conformity to the law.

For a number of years past it has been the practice of many politicians of all parties, I am told, to indulge in the use of money and whisky in elections in order to induce men to vote for their choice among the candidates in the Primary, or for their party at the general election. In other words it is reported they purchased votes on election day to control the election. Many good men in the past, no doubt, have engaged in this business without stopping to think of the enormity of the offense they were committing, or without realizing they were violating the law of the land.

I am issuing this statement, and having it published throughout this District, in advance of the Election, in an effort, if possible, to stop this unlawful traffic in human votes, and to warn those who expect to do this in the coming election, and all subsequent elections that if they resort to bribery, or the use of money or whisky, in an effort to influence voters in the Election, they will be punished—and to this end, I shall in the future ask the Grand Jurors to thoroughly investigate violations of the election laws and indict those shown to be guilty.

Very respectfully,

B. J. BETHURUM,
Judge 28th Judicial District.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure, with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THE OLD WILDERNESS ROAD

United States Senate COMMITTEE ON
EXPENDITURES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Washington D. C. 7-25-14.

Mr. James Maret,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

My dear Sir:—

I would be obliged if you would let me hear from you at the earliest possible moment in regard to the Old Wilderness Road project. (Boone Way.) I want to be thoroughly posted upon this subject so if there is anything I can do to assist my constituents I can be in a position to do so.

Sincerely yours

J. N. CAMDEN.

Our secretary has furnished Senator Camden all data gathered up to this date. The Senator proposes to push the good work begun by Senator Bradley.

Kansas City, Mo. 7-23-14.

Mr. Jas. Maret,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Mr. Maret:

Your letter covering a map of the "Boone Way" received, for which I thank you sincerely.

Pardon me for expressing a regret that your Association should have adopted a different name of the Old Road. The "Wilderness Road" is a classic in road literature, and I think you made a mistake in departing from it. Another mistake, if you will still pardon me for criticising, is that to make it come within Old Hickory Jackson's definition of a National Road, it ought to have a connection at one end or the other, either with a system of National Highways, or with some road that is actually National in character.

Under separate cover, I am sending you some literature on maps which may or may not be of some advantage to you.

Hoping at some time or other to meet you and to know you better, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

J. M. LOWE.

President National Old Trails Road Association.

This is the greatest set of road maps ever issued on the subject. They can be seen by calling at the office of Mr. Maret at Telephone exchange.

Stings or bites of insects that are followed by swellings, pains or itching should be treated promptly as they are poisonous. BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT counteracts the poison. It is both antiseptic and healing. Price 25c, 50c and $1. per bottle. Sold by John Robins, Brodhead, Ky.

Gen. Bennett H. Young, speaking at Madisonville in behalf of his candidacy for the short term, said:

"It has been persistently and continuously charged, and I never denied, that Hon. Johnson N. Camden, now candidate for the United States Senate for the short term, refused to vote for William Jennings Bryan in 1896, 1900 and 1908, when Mr. Bryan was the Democratic standard bearer for the Presidency. Twenty days ago I publicly stated this and advised Mr. Camden that if he would deny the charge I would take fullest opportunity in every speech I made to right him in this regard. Nothing has come from him on the subject.

"Mr. Camden could not afford to vote for Mr. Bryan when three times nominated by his party for the Presidency, can the Democrats of Kentucky afford now to vote for Mr. Camden for the United States Senate?"

"It may be true that Mr. Camden in 1911 and 1912 paid to the campaign funds the fabulous sum of $45,000, but can he, when refusing to support the party leaders, win the votes of Democrats by contributions to campaign expenses even though these be large enough to stagger belief?"

"As to what party Mr. Camden belonged before 1911 there is no record. He made no speeches, he helped in no canvasses. As far as the public knows he did nothing in advocacy of Democratic principles until 1911. Will two bar-bare-uses, where crowds can be fed at twenty-five cents a piece, and big campaign money make a Democrat suitable for United States Senator?"

To-morrow is the Primarv. Let Beckham for the full term and Camden for the short term be winners is the sincere desire of the SIGNAL.

THE Middleboro Three States says:

We published an article on last week by the Bristol Board of Trade, telling in detail what progress counties in Virginia and Tennessee were making in road building. It mentioned Booneway as one of the important connecting links between the Northwest and the Southwest. We have used a great deal of newspaper space in advocating this project and expect to use lots more.

We are proud to note that Judge Asher intends to call an election in December to vote bonds for the construction of Bell county's part in this important link, and then it will be up to Knox, Laurel and Rockcastle to build their part to complete the link. There is considerable optimism in Rockcastle county for this road, but so far we have heard but little from Knox and Laurel. We presume, why Bell and Rockcastle are taking such active interest is that both of these counties border other counties having a system of good roads and know the worth of good roads and know enough to appreciate the comforts derived therefrom.

TO THE PUBLIC

The W. I. Swain Show Company, Band and Orchestra which will exhibit at Mt. Vernon one week, commencing Monday Aug 3rd, is one of the oldest and best equipped tent show traveling in introducing the above company to our friends and patrons of Mt. Vernon, and vicinity, no expense spared in putting on this exceptional amusement enterprise. Special scenery, is carried for each play produced during the entire engagement. Our tent, seats, lighting system, in fact the entire outfit is entirely new and the best that money can buy. The big wind resisting tent "Kant Leek", and has seating capacity for a whole town. Throught the entire performance there is a wave of morality that is strictly refined and instructive. It sends one home after witnessing a performance with the feeling there is a lot of good in life and that we are really better for having seen a performance that will last when the price of admission has been forgotten. We have everything arranged for your convenience and amusement with prices, (Swain Prices Very Cheap) within reach of all and promise you an entertainment that will long be remembered. Tell your friends. Make up your parties, come out and spend a jolly night. Remember the date, one week commencing Monday August 3rd. Fair week.

The Brodhead Fair Ass'n has just made a contract with S. E. Thompson the Famous Aeronaut of Indianapolis, Ind., who no doubt takes more pleasure in riding the air than any man living to-day, he was at Brodhead a number of years ago, and on his last ascension went so high that his balloon drifted after his leap four miles away and was found by a hunter several days after the fair upon Brindle Ridge. Now this is not hot air, but was an actual occurrence of which many will recall, knowing his reputation was why he was engaged at a large cost. Levers of this amusement will no doubt see the best ascension at Brodhead this year ever seen before one ascension each day, two one day in case he is kept from going up by rain.

We publish in this issue a clipping from the Tazewell Progress, showing the road improvement to be made in that county in the near future. They will touch the Bell county line in two places, building a road from near Bosworth to the head of Mingo.

Since we have been in Middleboro, we have heard road talk, road improvement for Bell county, and the boosting of Booneway, but so far no dirt has been moved. We have also had all kinds of road legislation for the last ten years, but so far it has had little effect on Bell county, and at present there is no visible movement for immediate future developments or road improvement, while all the counties of adjoining States are spending thousands for road improvement.

If every citizen in Bell county could live awhile in a county with good roads and get a few of their benefits, they would not do without them, but not knowing and being used to bad roads they find it difficult to make up their mind to change.

Some may have the idea we can live as our forefathers did. We may do this, but it certainly leaves a bad impression on the civilized world. A few hours ride takes people living in this section of Bell county into a county making great headway in road improvement and we are doing absolutely nothing. Bell county has as much or more wealth than either of these counties and why her citizenship does not make some progress along this line we are at a loss to see.—Three States.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. Sometimes, I would have severe pains on the left side.

Then the doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was again bed again. After a few more months, I was again in the same condition. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him.
